Proclamation

The strength of America lies in its public schools. Conceived by this nation, universal public education for all has contributed to America's achievement of a free and democratic society.

Our system of universal public education, therefore, provides the opportunity for strengthening America's future, for fulfilling the great potential of American ideals by educating youth to become responsible citizens versed in the technique of self-government and informed in the ways and means of preserving freedom.

Only through equality of opportunity in education can tomorrow's citizens, who are crowding the doors of our educational institutions today, obtain the knowledge, skills and understanding needed for the development of their highest potential.

In this area of rapid technological and social development, our schools face the urgent need to prepare students for adaptation to change in a changing world and for the moral responsibility of handling the greater and more powerful forces to be unleashed in the future.

Public Schools Week was initiated by the California Grand Lodge of Masons forty-seven years ago to call the attention of citizens to the problems of their schools.

Therefore, I do hereby proclaim April 25-29 as PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK in Albany, California.

I call upon all citizens of this community to exercise their rights and responsibilities in their concern for and their dedication to the cause of freedom and the Public Schools, and ask that they attend and participate in Public Schools Week observances. Help "Keep America Strong . . . Support Our Public Schools."

Albany Day at Races

MONDAY, April 25, will be Albany Day at Golden Gate Fields. Above, Chamber of Commerce Vice President Joe Dagna, Debbie-Debbie-Do (the horse), Trainer Dale Landers, Jockey Bobby Jennings and Chairman Del Wisenor seem to be having a little difficulty (maybe over the Daily Double outcome). Just as this photo was completed, the horse reared back its head, painfully cutting the face of the trainer. —Fern Luoma Photo.

ANNUAL LIONS CLUB BREAKFAST SET MAY 1

Members of Albany Lions club, assisted by their wives and members of troop 1194, Girl Scouts, will stage their annual Spring Roundup Breakfast from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday, May 1, at the Veterans Memorial building.

Esterly Retires From Albany Police Reserves

Everett E. Esterly, who has been a member of Albany Police Reserves for 24 years, retired on April 1.

Members of the Reserves will honor him at a retirement dinner at 7:30 p.m. Saturday night, April 30, at Serb's. The public is invited. Tickets, $3.50 each, may be obtained at the Albany Police Department, Chairman Ed Zentner said.

Chief Ralph Jensen said, "Everett has been a dedicated public servant, serving as a member of the volunteer reserves for almost a quarter of a century. He was a real trustworthy guy to have with you in a pinch."

Esterly retired from the Albany Post Office earlier this year.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Bill Feeny, who has been serving the Albany High School for the past thirty-two (32) years is retiring, effective June, 1966; and

WHEREAS, Bill Feeny is the only Vice Principal and Dean of Boys the High School has known; and

WHEREAS, he has made a significant contribution to the civic life of the City of Albany, and has given of his time to cultivate a wholesome, beneficial climate of formative training for the young people of our City; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper to honor one who has generally earned for himself a reputation of dedicated, efficient service in the performance of his duties;

NOW THEREFORE, to that purpose, I, Lewis M. Howell, Mayor of the City of Albany do proclaim the week of May 9 as BILL FEENY WEEK, in recognition of his service to our High School Students.

Dated: April 12, 1966.
LEWIS M. HOWELL

500 Free Tickets For Albany Day At Golden Gate Fields

Golden Gate Fields has provided 500 tax-free passes to the clubhouse for Albany Day at the Races Monday, April 25. Chamber of Commerce Manager Neal Clarity has announced.

The tickets may be picked up at the Albany Times or the Chamber office.

Members of the Board of Directors will begin the special day with a luncheon in the Turf Club at noon. Reservations for directors and their guests ($3.25) must be made by Friday by calling the Chamber (LA 5-1771).

Jaycees Select May 21 For Maid Contest

Albany Jaycees have announced that the annual Maid of Albany contest will be held at the Albany High school auditorium Saturday, May 21.

Chairman Jack Dempster noted a change in age for contestants. Girls must be at least 17 but no more than 23 years of age by Aug. 1, 1966. They must be residents Albany for six months, residents of California one year, single and never have been married.

Applications are being accepted at the Albany Chamber of Commerce and Albany Times offices. All entries must be received at the Chamber office, 1108 Solano, no later than Thursday, May 12.

Other committee heads are J. Neal Clarity, sub-chairman; Bill Johnson, contestants; Jesse Day, publicity; Bill Meissner, program; Dennis Alexander, ways and means; and Mrs. John Thomson, contestant orientation.

IOOF

Berkeley Lodge 270, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet Thursday, April 21, at 8 p.m., at Berkeley Odd Fellows' Temple, 2288 Fulton Street.

BUD ROONEY NIGHT will be observed by Albany Moose lodge at a public dinner at the Masonic Temple, 533 San Pablo Ave., this Saturday night. Many dignitaries will be present to honor Albany's Recreation Director. Tickets are available at the Fire Department and other municipal offices at the Civic Center.

Frances Arnold Soroptimist Speaker Today

Mrs. Gerry Newcomer, chairman, will introduce to the members of the Albany Soroptimist Club on Wednesday, Mrs. Frances Arnold, an Albany resident, and presently with the Berkeley Humane Society.

Mrs. Arnold is the Humane Education Teacher, or Director, and has chosen as her subject, "Why Humane Education?" This is one of the humane education programs of the Society and which is most interesting.

The luncheon meeting will be held at Serb's restaurant, 1045 San Pablo Ave., 12 noon. Visitors are welcome.

Mrs. Marie Farwell will represent the Albany club at the Second Regional Conference of the Southwestern Region in Bakersfield, April 22 through 24. A timely title, "The Status of Women Today and Tomorrow," has been chosen by Mrs. Inka O'Hanrahan, president of the San Francisco club, for the keynote speech which she will deliver to more than 800 Soroptimists. Governor Maryellen George of Saratoga will preside at the business sessions.

'Vive La Difference'

Dimes Fashion Show Next Wednesday Will Be Different in Many Ways

The committee for the 1966 March of Dimes fashion show, which will begin with cocktails at 7 p.m. next Wednesday night at the Veterans Memorial building, has selected "Vive La Difference" as the theme and different it will be.

According to Frank Ellsworth, general chairman, the show will feature clothes for women from the Gay Shop; clothes for men by Roos/Atkins; wigs by Sallee; hair fashions by Karen Chelmedos of Solano Style shop; many prizes and a three-part cocktail hour featuring uniformed representatives of various men's civic and service clubs as bartenders.

But that's not all. Albany's Nelson Eddy and Jeanette McDonald (Ralph Jensen and Helen Baum) will sing; the "Piouettes" of Post 292 will dance; Albany's candidate for Mrs. America is expected to make her first

COUNCIL PAYS TRIBUTE TO PARKER MONDAY

It was Joel Parker, Jr., Night at Albany City Council Monday, when Councilman Parker attended his last official meeting. He did not run in the recent city election and was replaced at the reorganization meeting last night by Joe Carlevaro.

His fellow councilmen directed that a resolution of commendation for Parker be prepared by Tuesday night.

Parker said he enjoyed his service on the City Council and that he had no regrets. He added no one person on the Council can claim personal credit for accomplishments, which have been numerous since he took office in 1961.

"It is up to the five councilmen and the citizens to get things done," he said, adding much remains to be done in Albany.

School Board Resolution Praises Feeny

by Michele Lyon

Honoring Mr. William F. Feeny for his outstanding service to Albany High School for 32 years as vice principal and dean of boys, the AHS Board of Education in a historic move passed the following resolution:

Whereas, William F. Feeny has served as vice principal and dean of boys at Albany High School for thirty two years, and

Whereas, during this period of service he has been dedicated to the welfare of young people and encouraged their many worthwhile activities, and

Whereas, he has enthusiastically supported athletic events, especially football, and

Whereas, many student activities initiated by William Feeny have been on Cougar Field,

Now, therefore be it resolved Now, therefore be it resolved in regular session does direct that Cougar Field be dedicated in honor of William F. Feeny, and

Be it further resolved that an appropriate plaque be prepared and suitably mounted as evidence of esteem and gratitude.

Adopted by roll call votes this 12th day of April, 1966.

This resolution, which will be framed, will be presented to Mr. Feeny at a dinner held in his honor on May 11 at the Claremont Hotel to which alumni and friends are invited.

A second resolution passing unanimously commended Reserve Policeman Everett Esterly, who retired April 1 after 24 years of service to the city. He will be honored at a dinner April 30.

Council also approved a resolution of commendation for Albany Police Department on receipt of word from the National Police Officers association of America that Albany has won the National Police Safety Award for 1965.

Filed were communications from E. J. Rooney informing Council that Senior Center Director Buehah Belling will be gone until May 10; regarding hearings for Pacific Telephone and Western Union on rate increases; estimates of "in lieu" tax and apportionments to Albany for Motor License fees.

A letter from James Sadler outlining a program whereby street light poles to be replaced on San Pablo could be moved to Marin Ave., was referred to Administrative Officer James B. Turner.

Treasurer Marietta B. Ferreira was authorized to refund duplicate payments of three tax bills. Council approved preliminary plans for landscaping of new city buildings as presented by Turner, and followed his recommendation that a planter box at 1102 Pomona Ave. be set back a foot and a half.

Council held over for a work session the results of a survey of city employees on Blue Cross coverage and granted the request for a variance permit to J. Becker at 637 Madison, following the recommendation of Planning and Zoning commission.

The meeting adjourned at 9 p.m. until 8 p.m. last night when a new mayor was selected and Joe Carlevaro and Lewis M. Howell were formally seated.

Norm Jacobson Honored by P&Z Commission

Planning Commissioner Norman Jacobson, who is Joel Parker's appointee, was commended for his "selfless service" at the meeting of the Planning and Zoning commission April 13.

Parker has retired from the Council and his replacement, Joe Carlevaro, is expected to name a new member to P&Z.

The commission voted to recommend a variance at 635 Madison; reduction of front setbacks at 796 Hillside and 801 and 806 Cerrito; reduce the rear yard at 1151 Dartmouth, and gave permission to move a duplex to 1141 Evelyn and a single family residence to 1145 Evelyn.

Many home occupation permits were granted.

Berkeley Citizens Meeting on Safety Tonight

Chairman Wilson Young of the Berkeley Citizens Committee on Public Safety today announced plans to conduct a series of neighborhood meetings to identify public safety problems and later focus a planned attack on them wherever feasible.

The first neighborhood meeting will be held in the Thousand Oaks school auditorium at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday, April 20. The primary purpose of the meeting, Mr. Young explained, will be to hear from Berkeley citizens about particular problems of crime, crime prevention and public safety in that particular area. The public is invited.

The Citizens Committee on Public Safety was formed by City Council action and became effective July 1, 1965, under the provisions of Ordinance 4061 N.S. The principal purpose of the committee is to consider public safety problems confronting the City of Berkeley, particularly in the field of crime and crime prevention, and to act as a citizens advisory group for the City Council.

The committee, since its formation, has met regularly once a month and has considered problems referred to it by the City Council and city agencies. Studies have been made of the problems, needs and organization of the Berkeley Police Department. The Citizens Committee now feels that it is important, in fulfilling its purpose, to hear from the residents of Berkeley themselves. The neighborhood meetings are planned for this purpose.

Berkeley, Watts Pictures on Assembly Agenda

Remember the Berkeley Revolution? The Watts riots? If so, you will be interested in attending the meeting of Albany Republican Assembly at Cornell school cafeteria at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 27.

The Assembly has obtained two pictures, one on each of the two incidents. A well-informed narrator will describe events and conduct a question and answer period following the showing.

Red Chester, president, has extended an invitation to all Albany residents to attend this important and informative meeting.

Retired Persons Rummage Sale

The American Association of Retired Persons, Albany-Berkeley chapter, will hold a rummage sale Tuesday, April 26, at 1724 San Pablo Ave. Proceeds will go to cancer and heart associations, according to Margaret Longpre, president.

Those willing to donate clothing, dishes, appliances, etc. are asked to call Mrs. Longpre at 524-9546 or Mrs. H. C. Healey, chairman.

Berkeley Y Offers Dance Classes

One of the most popular programs at the Berkeley YMCA are the ball room dance classes for men and women. These classes, held continuously for the past 20 years, feature professional dance instructors who teach not only dance steps but poise, confidence and the ability to meet new people.

Ted and Diane Wayne, capable and talented dance team who have been teaching for over 10 years, will bring an interesting and enthusiastic style to the dance classes.

Instruction will continue April 25 through June 20 with a class for beginners from 7:30 to 9 p.m. featuring fox trot, rumba, teacher's choice, and a class for intermediate dancers from 9:30 to 10 p.m. featuring fox trot and cha-cha-cha, with a variety of steps. Either singles or couples may register for one or both courses.

Information will be mailed on request by calling the Berkeley YMCA, 846-6800. The Y is located at 2001 Allston Way in Berkeley.

Letters
Editor, the Times:
I thought that you, and your readers, would like to know that "The Pirouettes" of Post 292 will be going into rehearsal soon, for their demand performance at the March of Dimes fashion show on April 27.
This popular group, as you know, is noted throughout the Bay Area for its polished performances and I'm sure that all of Albany is awaiting its next appearance.
Sincerely,
MRS. FRED McCOLLUM

Editor, the Times:
Together with my wife, Marilyn, and daughter, Carlene, I wish to take this opportunity to thank all the citizens and voters of Albany who gave me their overwhelming support in Tuesday's election.
Receiving the highest number of votes indicates to me, the majority of our citizens endorse my principles of good city government. With this substantial vote of confidence, I will work diligently with my fellow councilmen to make Albany the kind of city my fellow citizens want to live in.
I can't express in words the sincere appreciation Marilyn, Carlene and myself have for the many volunteers who labored so hard for many evenings working on the campaign. All I can say is that we thank you with all our hearts and will forever be grateful for the work that was done.
JOE CARLEVARO

Editor, the Times:
It was gratifying to be able to arise the morning after the election to realize that although my campaign for city council was not successful, it was independent and clean. My loyal supporters will always have my respect.

I wish to thank all those who supported me and encourage them to continue working for the good of the city.
ELDON A. WOLF

Editor, the Times:
I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the election officers who worked so diligently and faithfully in the precincts, and especially to those who interrupted their busy lives to answer my plea for help at the last minute. They deserve the highest of praise for without their cooperation this election could not have functioned so efficiently.
I should also like to publicly thank the City Employees who so ably assisted me in the detail work incident to this election.
Sincerely,
MYRTLE J. McLEAN
City Clerk

Editor, the Times:
I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the honorable citizens who worked so diligently on my behalf in the municipal election.
I shall continue to work for the good of all of Albany as I have sincerely attempted to do for 14 years.
Although my running mate,
Barry Runnion, Jr., was not elected to the City Council, I believe this is Albany's loss—and not his.
Thanks again to everyone who worked and voted for me.
LEWIS M. HOWELL

Editor, the Times:
Thanks to my good and faithful friends who supported me,
and everyone who voted for me in the recent race for Albany City Council.
Although I was not elected, I hold no bitterness in my heart and shall continue to work for the good of my city.
BARRY RUNNION, JR.

Y FAMILY NIGHT FRIDAY
The first Family Night of 1966 will be held at Albany YMCA at 7 p.m. this Friday, John Carhart has announced.
Cliff Feldon and Mel Augustine will be in charge of the program, which will include demonstrations of gym activities by boys and girls. Featured will be the events of the National YMCA Athletic Achievement program.
The youngsters have had a "before and after" testing program with coaching and practice between. Some children will display craft projects they made in Roberta Russell's classes.
The Monday and Wednesday judo classes will demonstrate typical instruction and practice periods. Boys, girls, men and women will participate. The final event will be a contest between teams of five each.
Parents will be invited to participate in some activities. Parents of boys and girls not now involved in the Y program are especially urged to attend.

JEROME BLANK REALTY

Hard Money Market?

You've read about it, and it's true. Money is tight, financing is difficult. But, we still have FHA and GI loans available, and conventional loans with 10% down. We also have private lenders who will finance our transactions. If you want to buy a home, now is the time! We will find financing for you.

It's Hard To Beat!

We think this is a real buy! 4 bedroom, 2 bath home with stall shower, central heat, large living room, full dining room, fireplace, and a terrific new family room. There's a large yard, patio, and 2 car garage. A wonderful home for an expanding family. Trade in your small outgrown home. Evenings, Mr. Williams, 526-3819.

Near El Cerrito

City Hall

A really beautiful ranch style rustic in top condition with 2 large bedrooms, fine wall-to-wall carpeting and drapes. A brick terrace and covered patio round out the picture. At $19,500 with nothing down to GI's and $950 on FHA, this is a great opportunity. It's really immaculate. Call to see. Evenings, Mr. Williams, 526-3819.

New Albany Listing

This fine Spanish home is one of those spacious stucco beauties seldom found today, with a full concrete basement below and 5 tremendous rooms upstairs. With 2 bedrooms up, a possible 3rd bedroom down, central heat, beautifully groomed rear garden, large living room, full dining room, this is a home to be proud of. First time on the market. Just north of Solano on Madison. $22,000. Evenings, Mr. Williams, 526-3819.

Near Stockton Ave.

A fine buy in a ranch style 3 bedroom home plus rumpus room, brick patio, brick porch and a marvellously landscaped garden, complete with trellis covered patio, fruit trees, lawn and barbecue area. For $23,950 with GI or FHA financing, we think this is a great value for young family. Near Stockton Ave. bus line, shopping, library. Evenings, Mr. Headington, LA 4-7796.

Investor's Special!

Imagine finding a large, older, but modernized 3 bedroom Albany home for just $18,950, with 1 1/2 baths, modern kitchen, in fine central Albany area. Especially when lot is zoned for duplex, and next to brand new luxury triplex. Home leased at $150. Makes excellent rental with triplex future. Terms to fit your down payment. Evenings, Mr. Williams, 526-3819.

Karin Fosselius Engaged To Rodney Craig Wentler

At a recent open house reception at the San Carlos Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Karin Fosselius, announcement was made of the engagement of their daughter, Karin Inga, to Rodney Craig Wentler, son of Mrs.
Gladys Wentler of Palo Alto.
Both are students of San Francisco State College. Karin is a sophomore in creative arts and an Intern Lab Assistant in the art department. Rod, as the groom-to-be is called, is a senior in radio-TV-film and film editor.
He and the bride's brother, Carl Ernie, a junior at the college, are in film production work together.

Karin attended Marin grammar and Albany High schools, where she was active in orchestra and band graduating in 1964.
Rod is a graduate of Cubberley High School in Palo Alto, and has one brother, Bruce, a San Francisco State graduate who is now employed in the film department of KGO-TV in San Francisco.
Among 40 guests attending the affair were Mrs. Wentler, Mr.
and Mrs. George W. Talbot of Kensington, Karin's maternal grandparents, and Rev. and Mrs.

CREATIVE FAIR AT AHS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27

A "Creative Fair" is the general theme of the forthcoming observance of Public Schools Week at Albany High school. On Wednesday evening, April 27, the students and staff will provide an interesting departure from the traditional "Open House" spring activity. The high school auditorium will be the focal point of the evening rather than the customary classrooms.

Entertainment at the "Creative Fair" begins with a free program starting at 7:30 p.m. The high school dance band and a ca-

PELLA choir will provide musical offerings. A fashion show will be one of the highlights. Following the program refreshments will be served.
Numerous displays and demonstrations will be located on the main floor of the auditorium depicting vocational, artistic and creative skills of today's teenagers. All in all, the student body and staff of Albany High school are busy preparing for a new and special treat for the community in recognition of National Public Schools Week commencing
April 25.

O. R. Janke of Grace Lutheran Church, El Cerrito, and their daughter, Marga. Pastor Janke baptized and confirmed Karin and her brothers and will perform the wedding ceremony tentatively scheduled for June of this year. Also present were Mr.
and Mrs. Paul Voigt of Berkeley, Karin's Godparents, and her brother, George and his wife, the former Cynthia Lane, of Albany, whose mother, Mrs. Lawrence Lane assisted Mrs. Fosselius with the buffet.

Karin's paternal grandparents were the late Captain and Mrs.
Einar Ernst Fosselius of Stockholm, Sweden and San Francisco.

Guests were alerted to the occasion for the party when they received heart shaped cookies en-scribed with "Karin and Rod" and viewed the cake similarly decorated. Unable to attend because of illness were Mr. and Mrs. Jan Fosselius and sons of Santa Cruz, Karin's aunt and uncle's family, and cousins, Mr.
and Mrs. Arnold Erslund and children of Santa Rosa.

RUMMAGE SALE

NEXT SENIOR CENTER LECTURE SET APRIL 26

The next in a series of lectures by members of the book section of the Association of University Women will be given at Albany
Senior Citizen Center Tuesday,
April 26, from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

Dr. Ethel Sabin Smith will speak on "Old Age Around the World." A professor from Mills College, Dr. Smith has written three books, including "Passports at Seventy" and "Dynamics of Aging."

Seniors consider themselves fortunate to have this talented group of women come to them and give these educational talks.
They have heard from such women as Mrs. R. J. Christanga, an author; Mrs. Francis Herrick, an extensive traveler; Mrs. John Christiansen, whose topic was Africa; Mrs. Drucilla Strehlow, who lectured on dolls, and Mrs.

Danielson, who spoke on Hong Kong.
Lectures are open to the public. Membership in the Senior Citizens is not necessary and there is no charge for admission.

ELLIS-OLSON'S AGAIN NAMED TO ORDER OF THE GOLDEN RULE

Membership in the Order of the Golden Rule—an international affiliation of dependable funeral directors—has been accorded to Ellis-Olson Mortuary, 727 San Pablo Ave., for the 20th consecutive year.

Renewal of the Ellis-Olson Mortuary's membership in the Order was based on its ability to provide modern, comprehensive service, always at prices that are reasonable and just.

As the Order's member in Albany, Berkeley and El Cerrito, Ellis-Olson Mortuary is authorized to display the knight-and-shield emblem on which is emblazoned the Golden Rule Funeral Service motto: "Service measured not by Gold . . . but by the Golden Rule." Members of the Order of the Golden Rule are located in cities and towns all over the world. Their languages and their customs may differ but their dedication to the cause of improved funeral service to the public is the same.

The Order and its members are continually seeking new and better ways to serve bereaved families, always remembering that the needs and wishes of each family group are of paramount importance.

The Golden Rule members are pledged to serve families of all

Law Course

A short-term course, Law for the Layman, is being presented this spring at the Albany Adult Center, 603 Key Route Blvd., with Stanley Kendall, a practicing East Bay attorney, as instructor. Class sessions will cover a general discussion of these aspects of law which the average person meets in everyday living.

Open to the enrollment of non-Albany as well as Albany residents, the course is offered on Tuesday evenings, 7:30 to 9:30, starting April 19.

In addition to covering wills and the probating of estates, Kendall will include: contracts, oral and written; property rights, including deeds, leases, deeds of trust, and notes; rights of husbands and wives, community and separate property; inheritance and estate taxes; and a discussion of other related phases of the law.

Foreign Language

Courses in French, Italian, German and Spanish, with emphasis on conversation, are included in the spring quarter program of the Albany Adult School. Adults residing in or out of Albany may enroll in these evening classes, all held in the Albany High school building, 603 Key Route Blvd., Albany.

French classes include instruction for beginners and semi-intermediate students on Mondays; intermediates and advanced on Tuesdays. They will be held 7 to 10, with Madame P. Julien-Thompson as the teacher.

Italian for both beginners and intermediates will be taught on the same evening, Thursday, 7 to 10, by Mrs. Gianna Langenberg. At the first meeting, it will be decided how the group will be divided. There will be scheduled time for beginners alone; some, for those who have studied Italian; and some, for a combination of the two groups.

Intermediate German students will meet on Monday evenings; beginners on Thursdays, with R. Bermann as the instructor.

There are four classes in Spanish scheduled: beginners, Wednesdays; semi-intermediates, Thursdays; intermediates, Tuesdays; and advanced, Mondays. All of these are scheduled 7 to 10, with David Bryar instructing.

GYM-SWIM

Three classes of physical conditioning for women are scheduled by the Albany Adult School at Cornell auditorium, 919 Cornell Ave.

Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 8:30, Mrs. Edith Heumann has classes in Gym-Swim. Each class is followed by an hour of swimming instruction for those who desire it. Students wishing gymnastics only may take just this phase of the program.

On Tuesday evenings, 7:30 to 9, Mrs. Elaine Schooley has a course in exercise for fitness. It is an intermediate class open to students who have satisfactorily completed other physical conditioning courses and are accepted by the instructor for this class. The chief purpose of the course is the improvement of individual health and appearance.

CHORAL CLASSES

Two evening choral classes, open to the enrollment of both Albany and non-Albany adults, are offered at the Albany Adult School, 603 Key Route Blvd., Albany, this spring. The courses include beginning and intermediate instruction in four-part harmony, with Marian Caruso as teacher. Men and women, with or without previous training, are welcome in the Monday evening class; however, the Wednesday chorus is for women only. Both classes are 7 to 10.

Class and individual instruction stressing sight-reading and beginning techniques are given in the Monday night class. This is not a chorus, but instead a pilot class, emphasizing craft and production and seeking out other needs of the students.

The Wednesday evening class, an intermediate chorus, sings songs of both yesteryear and today. Outside performances will be scheduled for those willing to participate.

p.m. at the Cinema at Shattuck and Haste. The show will consist of a Walt Disney favorite plus a Laurel and Hardy short.

Mrs. Robert Lyon, 735 Curtis, Albany, co-chairman of the event, suggests that the Cinema is an ideal place for those visiting the Berkeley Flea Market on April 24, to leave their children.

Mrs. George Rosenfeld, 1528 Oxford, Berkeley, said that "the movie show will provide the children with two hours of delightful entertainment."

Tickets and information are available by calling Mrs. Robert Fosner, El Cerrito, at 525-5532.

Donations are $1 and all proceeds go toward supporting ORT's worldwide network of vocational training schools.

SWIMMING INSTRUCTION

Instructional swimming for both men and women is among the courses offered this spring by the Albany Adult School on Monday and Wednesday evenings. The course, open to the enrollment of those residing in or out of Albany, is scheduled for 6:30-8:30, and 7:30-9:30. Three levels of instruction are included each hour: beginning, semi-intermediate, and intermediate, with a teacher for each level. Students may attend on a one-hour or two-hour, and on a once or twice-a-week basis.

Those registering for these classes should do so at Albany Pool, corner of Portland and Pomona Avenues, on their first night of attendance.

B'Nai Brith Installation

Berkeley chapter of B'Nai Brith Women will hold installation Sunday evening, April 24, at 8 p.m. at the American Savings, 1870 Solano Ave., Berkeley.

To be installed from the Berkeley and Albany area are: president, Mrs. Ruth Oliver of Albany; vice president, Mrs. Chester Zeff of Berkeley; secretaries, Miss Sadelle Blumberg and Mrs. Julius Magid, Berkeley; treasurer, Mrs. Louis Lewis, financial secretary, Mrs. Saida Woolf, and counsellor, Mrs. Bernard Berke, all of Albany.

PSYCHOLOGY

Albany Adult School will offer a course in the Psychology of the Human Mind. The course is justment this spring. The class, which is for Monday evening, is open to new enrollments. Enrollments are open regardless of residence. Emphasis will be placed on achievement of self-knowledge through understanding of the process of perception, personality, and self-acceptance.

Political Roundup

PETRI
The announcement today that Mayor Harris, Berkeley City Councilman, will serve as chairman for Berkeley in the campaign for Assemblyman Nicholas C. Petris (Dem.) of Oakland as Senator for the 11th District in Alameda County, was made by Oscar A. Pearson, Alameda County Chairman of the Petris for Senate Campaign Committee.

ORTMAN CAMPAIGN
Mrs. Eldon Parr, Albany housewife and former teacher, and Henry Winston, Oakland business manager, will serve as co-chairmen of a campaign committee for Ray Norton, write-in candidate for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman in the 17th District (West Oakland, Emeryville, West Berkeley, Albany).

"Ray Norton is well qualified to represent all of us in the 17th District," Mrs. Parr said. "He had demonstrated his leadership as a U.S. Olympic star and a 49er football player, as a County Juvenile Counselor and a businessman."

Winston said that Norton "is a man of action who has the energy, drive and ability to see to it that needed jobs are developed in the 17th District."

George R. Vaughns, Oakland attorney, will serve as campaign coordinator. Assisting him will be John Ford and William McKenna.
Norton for Assembly Committee has opened a downtown Oakland headquarters in the 17th District at 508 16th Street.

DAY CAMPAIGN

Richard Day, former Assembly Legislative Assistant and CDC endorsed candidate for Assemblyman in the 17th District, today proposed a sweeping revision of California's Labor Code to help equalize the position of farm workers.

"Under present law," Day said, "the farm worker is excluded from minimum wage, workmen's compensation and collective bargaining benefits. The solution is to delete this exclusion."
Day also said he would join the Delano farm workers march to Sacramento for the last two days.

"The recent victories in Delano," Day continued, "bode well for the future. The growers seem finally willing to accept the legitimate demands of farm workers. The legislature needs to take a hand in this also."

Error on LL Tickets Noted

Albany Little League booster tickets are being circulated starting this week and the league wishes to take this means to correct an error printed on the tickets.

The tickets state that Thousand Oaks French Laundry is donating five $5 merchandise orders, which is incorrect, for they are donating one $5 merchandise order. The ticket fails to mention Discounts' Unlimited who is donating five $1 merchandise orders. Corrected tickets are being printed.

The prizes donated will be awarded to lucky ticket holders June 18 at the baseball diamonds.

Little League Team Pix Set

Team pictures for the Albany Little League will be taken Saturday, April 23, 10 a.m. at the baseball diamonds in the University Village, according to Mrs. Mario Lavagnino, picture chairman. Mrs. Lavagnino states that pictures will be ordered and paid for at this time. Individual and team pictures will be sold at 50 cents each. Co-chairman is Mrs. Ernest Jaramillo.

CRUDE OIL RESERVES

Crude oil reserves in the United States are estimated as being between 200 and 600 billion barrels, reports National Automobile Club.

APRIL BRINGS MANY EXHIBITS AT LIBRARY

Muriel Woodruff is currently exhibiting 26 paintings and collages at the Albany Public Library on Solano Avenue.

Mrs. Woodruff has exhibited in a number of shows in Walnut Creek, Oakland, Berkeley and Marin, in the "Zellerbach Annual" in San Francisco, and the "Madonna Festival" in Los Angeles. She also has had one-man shows in Walnut Creek, Danville, El Cerrito, San Leandro and Berkeley. The artist has a large number of paintings out on rental privately and through the Marin Rental Gallery in Ross.

Mrs. Woodruff has studied with several local teachers, including Virginia Rogers, Tom Elliot, Jonathan Batchelor, Barbara Galliano, and most recently, with Catherine Hagen.

The artist, a mother of three children, resides in Berkeley and is currently sharing a studio in Kensington with four other artists.

The exhibit will be up through the month of April.

Also on exhibit in the library this month are three interesting collections by local residents.

A valuable and versatile exhibit of orders, decorations and medals has been arranged by an Albany collector who wishes to remain anonymous. This exhibit shows only a few of the thousands of orders, decorations and medals that are being, or have been awarded by kings, presidents, governments and individuals. They are awarded for bravery or service. The collector states that there are awards for being the best elevator operator in Moscow and awards for losing your life rescuing a comrade from under the enemies guns.

The articles on exhibit range from a Military Order of Christ, founded in 1318 by King Denis of Portugal and confirmed by Pope John XXII, to an Order of the Most Compassionate Heart, founded to honor persons who helped maintain the cause of Imperial Russian ideals after the fall of Russia to the Bolsheviks.

YMCA MOVES TO FILL SUMMER SCHOOL GAP

Members of the board of Albany YMCA last Thursday asked the program committee to develop a special summer program to help fill the gap caused by the decision of the Board of Education not to hold summer school this year because of the failure of the tax election.

Watch for future announcements. In the meantime, interested parents are urged to call the Y (525-4833) to make suggestions as to desirable activities.

One activity already arranged is a day camp for boys and girls seven to 11 at Tilden Park. There will be four one-week periods beginning June 27. Activities will include nature hikes, camp crafts, daily swimming and overnights; each Friday at Chabot park. Transportation will be provided from Y buildings in Albany and Berkeley.

Century Club plaques were presented at the meeting to Mrs.

Commercial Courses

A well-rounded program in commercial subjects is available at the Albany Adult school, 603 Key Route Blvd., during the spring quarter, which opened this week. Classes in shorthand, typing, business machines, and bookkeeping are all on the schedule. Courses are open to the enrollment of interested adults, whether residents of Albany or of one of the neighboring communities, and are scheduled for 7 to 10 each class session.

Typing for beginners is offered Hilda Granholt; Mrs. Elvina Gould of Albany Women's club; William Lacy, Albany Bowl; Ernie Marin, Jim Woulfe Ford, and Larry Saler, Foley, Saler and Douth, attorneys. Not present were Vince Nicora and Harold W. Olson.

on Tuesday and Thursday evenings; for intermediates and advanced on Wednesdays; and for all levels, beginning through advanced, on Mondays and Wednesdays. The classes in business machines are scheduled for Monday and Wednesday evenings. Bookkeeping for beginners and intermediate students offered on Thursday evenings. Gregg shorthand for beginners will be held on Wednesday evenings; Mondays, for dictation at various levels.
